

WORKSHEET

A Conversation with a Witness to Bullying

Find out what your child would do in a situation of witnessing bullying or cyberbullying. See what his/her beliefs concerning these forms of aggression are. Thanks to that you will discover how your child would react in a situation of being a witness of violence which is extremely stressful.

*Ask your child the following questions, discuss his/her choice of answers.
Be a guide, yet be alert to emotions the child shows.
Do not force to do or say anything. Listen more!*

Can people learn how not to be helpless while witnessing a violent situation?

Would most of your peers react to incidents connected with violence (live or on the Internet)? If so, how would they react?

When somebody becomes a victim of violence, does it usually happen in isolation or are there other people around?

If you reacted witnessing violence, would you become a victim yourself?

Do children observing bullying and cyberbullying situations rather feel uncomfortable about it or do they enjoy it?

Does passive observing the situation of abusing another person make the situation worse or does it have no meaning for what is happening to the victim?

Is it possible that somebody does not react to bullying or cyberbullying because he/she thinks it is just harmless game to play?

Do you sometimes wonder what the harassed person feels?

What do you think, how would you feel in such a situation?

Do you think that in a situation of witnessing bullying or cyberbullying you can react somehow? If yes, then how?

WORKSHEET

A Conversation with a Witness to Bullying

Notes from the conversation:

A large area of the page is filled with horizontal dashed lines, intended for students to write their notes from the conversation.